Tafseer Tanzeeh-ul- Quran Ani`l Mata`in - A Critical View

Abdul Ghaffar *

Abul- Hassan Shabbir Ahmad

Qazi Abdul Jabbar Hamdani was a famous scholar of Mutizilla sect. He had born between 932 to 942 A.D and had enjoyed 90 years long life. He spent all his time in teaching and writing the books. He wrote a Tafseer (Commentary) of the Holy Quran named "Tanzihul-Quran anil Mata`in". This is not a complete Tafseer of the Holy Quran but he impartially chooses the verses of Holy Quran according to his need to proves his ideas of Motizillah sect to whom which he belong. In his Tafseer, he prefers to describe the background and relation of the verses. He also quotes other verses of the Holy Quran and senescs from traditional Arabs poetry and literature to sport his view point. His Tafseer is opinion based which is called in Islamic literature terminology "Tafseer Bir-Ray". This article is a review and comprehension of the said Tafseer. It is also focus the sources of the said Tafseer and dicsused the impact of Later Tafseeri Literature.
